

The Haggai Song

Berj Topalian 1994 (c) GNU Productions

8 BARS INTRO

1. Ju - dah in five fif-teen B. C., gen - tly grow - ing
2. Peo - ple wor - king hard night and day, stash - ing all their
4. Twen - ty Sev'n - teen here in this church, nas - ty feel - ing

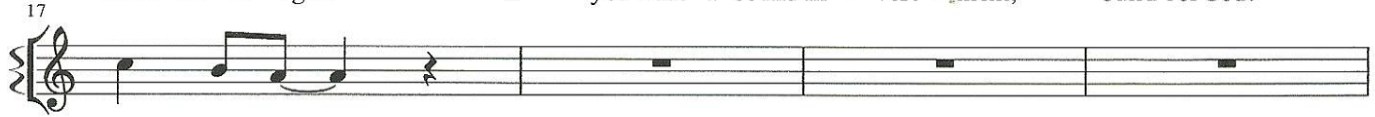

e - co - no - my, build - ing homes and li - ving nice and com - for - t'ly.
mo - ney a - way, ho - ping that in - fla - tion's rate is kept at bay.
'bout this last verse; think that Hag - ga - i is trying to get at me!

Hag - ga - i comes storming a - long; Hag - ga - i says,
God says, See the poor re - turn on the mo - ney Can't ig - nore him try as I might. E - ven worse I Hold it! Hang on! Ne - ver mind you gen - tle com - forts! Build for God!

you've slog - ged to earn. If you want a sound in - vest - ment, build for God!
think he is right. If you want a sound in - vest - ment, build for God!

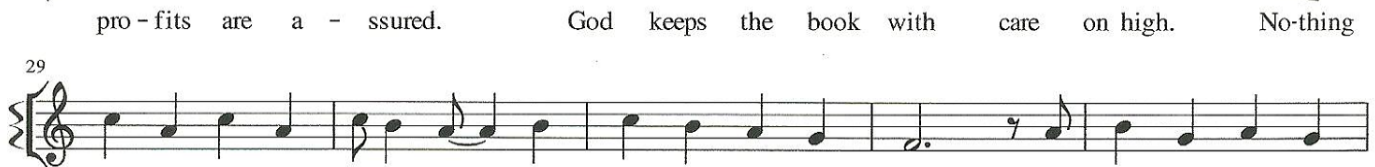

Build for God!
Build for God!
Build for God!

3. Con - trac - ting for the Lord the pro - fits are a - ssured. God keeps the book with care on high. No - thing can e - scape his eagle eye. - Build now for the Lord and then you'll not be floor'd; and when you meet with God on high you'll bless the name of Hag - ga - i - i - i, You'll bless the name of Hag - ga - i!