A /c# D E A /c# D E

1. Nic - o - de - mus comes by night seek - ing him who is the Light,
2. Scarce-ly he be - lieves his ears, Rab - bi, he, these man-y years!

5 G D E F#m Bm D/e E

fear - ful if he comes by day he might give him - self a - way.
That he does not turn a - side proves he o - ver - comes his pride.

9 [Repeat the 8 bar chord sequence above for the rest of the piece.]

Ni - co - de - mus must find out what sal - va - tion is a - bout;
On a day when co - wards run he - de - clares whose side he's on;

13

he the worth - i - est of men must like us be born a - gain. O praise God!
stran - gest of all gifts, he gives space in death to one who lives. O praise God!

17 1.

Rab - bi Ni - co - de - mus could not rest, so he search'd for Je - sus.

21

In the dark - ness of the night he dis - co - ver'd God's true Light.

25 2.

Rab - bi Ni - co - de - mus could not rest, so he search'd for Je - sus.
