

Psalm 102

Give heed to me. O Lord

B.T. © GNU 1993

An instrumental introduction is provided on the previous page. With very little change this can also be used as an accompaniment to selected sections of the psalm setting. The setting itself can be sung as a round: when the first group reaches the top of the second page the second group starts at the beginning. Both groups can sing the round in 4 part harmony.

1. Give heed to me O Lord, an- swer my prayer,
2. Bring now your free- dom Lord to all in chains,

Dm G7 C Am Dm6..... /B Esus4E E

Do not hide from your ser- vant now, Quick- ly come to my aid.
those our greed may con- demn to die. Let your jus- tice pre- vail.

Am G/A Am G/A Am

See how my days rush by, van- ish out like smoke,
May we your ser- vants here live out your love,

Dm G7 C Am Dm6 E7 Am

All my bones burn and waste a- way; Life just with- ers like grass.
Share our bless- ings with those in need, So your king- dom will come.

G...7 Am G... 7 Am

Yet For... you sit en- throned for e- ver more.

Dm G...7 C Am Dm6.. B Esus4E

Age to age your glor- ious name en- dures.

Am G...7 Am G.... 7 Am

Show com- pass- ion Lord, your stead- fast love,

Dm G...7 C Am Dm6....E 7 Amsus4 Am

Let all na- tions glor- i- fy your name!
