

Psalm 32

B.T. © GNU 1993

Blessed is he whose sins are forgiven

Organ accompaniment would suit this setting very well, although other instruments would do. After the introduction the next 2 lines of melody would sound well unaccompanied before the 4 part harmony of the second page. But use a full organ to accompany v.4. A Chord of F# major could be added at the very end.

Bm D F#m D Bm F#m

G Bm G Bm A Bm

1. Ble - ssed is he whose sins are for - gi - ven;
2. Then I con - fessed my sin to the Lord, ac -
3. Lord, you're my shel - ter, ha - ven of still - ness;
4. You who are righ - teous, wor - ship the Lord and

Bm F#m Bm/D A ble - ssed that man - ble - ssed that man. Ble - ssed is he whom know - ledged my guilt for I had done wrong. Then he for - gave my You shall give rest to my trou - bled soul. Lord you di - rect my sing out for joy, be glad in the Lord, for his great love sur -

Bm F#m Em Bm D F#m

(fine)

God has for - gi - ven; ble - ssed that man, ble - ssed that man.
guilt and my sin, re - stored me to strength, gave me a song.
ways and in - struct me. Lead me in paths where I should go.
rounds all who trust him. Sing out for joy! Trust in the Lord!

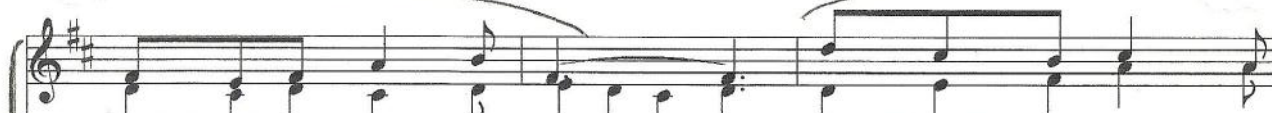

G DsusD Bm E G (A D) E

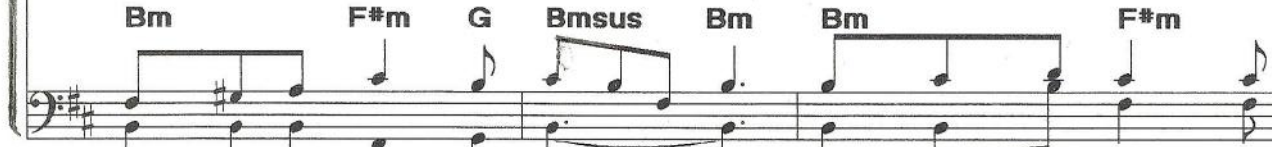

For when I hid my sin from the Lord my
You who are faith - ful, trust in the Lord when Do not be - have like ob - stin - ate mules that

Bm F#m G Dsus D

bo - dy did waste a - way. My strength did fail as trou - ble be - sets your soul. Though great floods threa - ten bri - dle and bit must curb. Look to the Lord and

Bm F#m G Bmsus Bm Bm F#m

in sum - mer's heat. God's hand hea - vy on me lay.
you shall be safe, all things are in God's con - trol.
walk in his ways then he shall di - rect your paths.

G Dsus D Bm F#m G Bsus B